The Bulletin

Norwich, Saturday, Dec. 1, 1917.

THE WEATHER.

A general disturbance over Ontario with low pressure extending southward into the Atlantic states has been attended by general rains from the upper Mississippi valley eastward except in New England and there were also rains in the Carolinas, Georgia and east Tennessee.

There will be rain Saturday from North Carolina northward with probably some snow in north New England. It will be colder Saturday in the lake region, the Ohio valley and Tennessee and on Sunday in the east lower lake region and the middle states and New England.

Forecast.
Eastern New York and Southern New England: Rain Saturday, Sunday fair, colder.

Observations in Norwich.

of government work and the scarcity of labor is given as the excuse. The public schools of the village close for the week end as usual, and the school children were thereby able to make the most of the slight snow for sliding purposes.

Paragore.

EVENTS OF FIFTY YEARS AGO

Thanksgiving Celebrated by Public Demonstration—James Chappell Drowned at the Falls—Local Banks Declared Dividends.

Fifty years ago in Norwich Thanksgiving was celebrated by a public demonstration at which many turned out although the weather was bad. A local concern made Thanksgiving gifts to their employees. A young man, James Chappell, was drowned at the Falls and body was not recovered until the following day.
Extracts from the Bulletin's files of 47 follow:

Nov. 25, 1867—The Sabbath school connected with the West Side Baptist church held a concert last evening.

A young man about twenty years of age named James Chappell was drowned at the Falls Saturday night.
He left the house of Edward F. Bal-con, 9.30, saying he was going home over the railroad track. He was found Sunday morning lying on the water under the railroad bridge. It is supposed that he fell through the tie and trestle work of the bridge.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Easier, Quicker and Without the Blister

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole.
Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of out-of-date mustard plasters, and will not blister.
Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, c
